PROBABLE CAUSE STATEMENT

On January 23, 2008, Border Patrol Agent A. Abellon was performing line watch duties in the Imperial Beach Border Patrol Station area of operations in an area known as Spooner's Mesa. This area is located approximately four miles west of the San Ysidro, California Port of Entry and approximately 100 yards north of the United States/ Mexico International Border. At approximately 9:30 a.m. Border Patrol dispatch advised Agents of a seismic intrusion activation in the area. Agent Abellon responded to the area and encountered six individuals attempting to hide. Agent Abellon approached the group and identified himself as a United States Border Patrol Agent and conducted an immigration inspection on all of the individuals. All six including one later identified as the defendant, Javier ESTRADA, admitted to being Mexican citizens illegally present in the United States. None of the individuals including, the defendant, did not possess any immigration documents that would allow them to enter or remain in the United States legally. All six including the defendant were arrested and taken to the Imperial Beach Station for further processing.

Routine record checks of the defendant revealed an immigration history. The defendant's record was determined by a comparison of his immigration record and the defendant's current fingerprint card. Official immigration records of the Department of Homeland Security revealed the defendant was previously deported to Mexico on April 9, 2007, through Calexico, California. These same records show that the defendant has not applied for permission from the Attorney General of the United States or his designated successor, the Secretary of the Department of Homeland Security, to return to the United States after being removed.

The defendant was advised of his Miranda Rights and stated that he understood his rights and was willing to answer questions without an attorney present. The defendant admitted to being a citizen and national of Mexico, and that he is present without immigration documents that would allow him to enter or remain in the United States legally. He stated is intended destination was Los Angeles, California.
